The Press Articles referred to the statements allegedly made by Mr. Wei Jie (“Mr. Wei”), the chairman, the chief executive officer, the executive director and the ultimate controlling shareholder of the Company that Gold-Finance (Holding) Group Co. Ltd. (“Gold-Finance Group”), a company under the control of Mr. Wei, might inject its assets and/or businesses in the medical, cultural/film, finance and education fields into the Company (the “First Statement”) and that the resources of the Group would be redeployed to facilitate Gold-Finance Group in expanding its infrastructure business in Mainland China (the “Second Statement”). However, to the best of the Company’s knowledge, Mr. Wei has not made any of the aforesaid statements.

In relation to the First Statement contained in the Press Articles, the Board wishes to clarify that up to the date of this announcement, Gold-Finance Group has had no intention to inject any of its assets and/or businesses in the medical, cultural/film, finance and education fields into the Company. In relation to the Second Statement contained in the Press Articles, the Board wishes to clarify that it will not nor does it intend to redeploy its resources to facilitate the expansion of the infrastructure business of Gold-Finance Group in Mainland China.
