The definitive rights and obligations of Guangdong Guangzheng and Huiyin Haide to specific transactions contemplated under the Strategic Cooperation are subject to the further agreement(s) to be separately negotiated and entered into by the relevant parties. For the avoidance of doubt, the Strategic Cooperation does not constitute any definitive contractual obligation on the parties to invest in the Industry Fund or any other form of capital commitment (whether equity, loan or otherwise) for the parties to the Strategic Cooperation.

REASONS FOR THE STRATEGIC COOPERATION

Huiyin Haide is a fund management company established in the PRC, with investments in a range of industries, including but not limited to education, infrastructure, environmental protection and healthcare. The assets under management (“AUM”) of Huiyin Haide exceeds RMB2,000 million as of 31 December 2018. Guangzhou Huiyintianyue Equity Investment Fund Management Co. Ltd (廣州匯垠天粵股權投資基金管理有限公司), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Guangzhou Industrial Investment Fund Management Co. Ltd (廣州產業投資基金管理有限公司) (“Guangzhou Fund”), is the largest shareholder of Huiyin Haide.

Guangzhou Fund is an industrial investment platform established by Guangzhou Municipal Committee and People’s Government of Guangzhou Municipality with AUM of approximately RMB139 billion as of 31 December 2017.

The Directors believe that Huiyin Haide is a fund management platform which possesses a solid investment track record, comprehensive services as well as outstanding financing and investment capabilities.

The Directors are of the view that the cooperation between the Group and Huiyin Haide contemplated under the Strategic Cooperation (i) provides an additional channel for the Group to identify, set up or develop schools in Greater Bay Area or other potential cities in PRC for its expansion, as the Group is entitled to a right of first refusal to acquire investment projects of the Industry Fund under the Strategic Cooperation; (ii) can further expand the Group’s financing channels and lower the finance cost of the Group; (iii) is conducive to promoting industry-education integration and school-enterprise cooperation and allows the parties to promote mutual development by leveraging on the Group’s operational capability in the education industry, and Huiyin Haide’s financial management capabilities; and (iv) will broaden the Group’s income base with returns from the Industry Fund.

Based on the above, the Directors consider that the terms of the Strategic Cooperation and the transactions contemplated thereunder are fair and reasonable, and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.
