The Board has been informed by the Controlling Shareholder that in respect of the Proposal, discussion is at preliminary stage and no formal or legally binding agreement has been entered into between the Controlling Shareholder and the Potential Investor. The Potential Investor, the Controlling Shareholder and the Company have signed a confidentiality letter today in respect of confidential information to be provided by the Company and the Controlling Shareholder to the Potential Investor in connection with the Proposal. Further announcement(s) will be made of any further development with regard to the Proposal as and when necessary in accordance with the GEM Listing Rules and the Takeovers Code, and on a monthly basis pursuant to Rule 3.7 of the Takeovers Code until an announcement of a firm intention to make an offer or of a decision not to proceed with an offer is made in compliance with the Takeovers Code.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.

Reproduced below is the full text of Note 11 to Rule 22 of the Takeovers Code in accordance with Rule 3.8 of the Takeovers Code:

“Responsibilities of stockbrokers, banks and other intermediaries

Stockbrokers, banks and others who deal in relevant securities on behalf of clients have a general duty to ensure, so far as they are able, that those clients are aware of the disclosure obligations attaching to associates and other persons under Rule 22 and that those clients are willing to comply with them. Principal traders and dealers who deal directly with investors should, in appropriate cases, likewise draw attention to the relevant Rules. However, this does not apply when the total value of dealings (excluding stamp duty and commission) in any relevant security undertaken for a client during any 7 day period is less than $1 million.

This dispensation does not alter the obligation of principals, associates and other persons themselves to initiate disclosure of their own dealings, whatever total value is involved.

Intermediaries are expected to co-operate with the Executive in its dealings enquiries. Therefore, those who deal in relevant securities should appreciate that stockbrokers and other intermediaries will supply the Executive with relevant information as to those dealings, including identities of clients, as part of that co-operation.”
